

GREAT LAKES ADVENTURE

National Railroad Museum ❖ Tahquamenon Falls ❖ Great Lakes Shipwreck Museum
❖ Museum Ship Valley Camp ❖ Alpena Shipwreck Tours ❖ Elk Carriage Ride

SEPTEMBER 7 – 12, 2026

JOIN US ON AN UNFORGETTABLE
MOTORCOACH ADVENTURE
THROUGH WISCONSIN AND MICHIGAN!

Our journey begins as we travel through Wisconsin, with fun stops at Mars Cheese Castle and the National Railroad Museum, where our group will enjoy a guided tour and even take a train ride.

From there, we continue north into the majestic Upper Peninsula of Michigan, where breathtaking scenery and fascinating history await. Highlights include visits to Palms Book State Park, Tahquamenon Falls State Park, the Great Lakes Shipwreck Museum, the Museum Ship Valley Camp, and the Tower of History for incredible panoramic views.

After several days exploring the beauty of the Upper Peninsula, we will cross the mighty Mackinac Bridge and enjoy time for shopping and sightseeing in Mackinaw City.

Our adventure continues in Alpena, where we will take a glass-bottom boat tour to see shipwrecks resting beneath the clear waters of Lake Huron. The experience continues with a carriage ride to view some elk, followed by a gourmet dinner and wine tasting—a perfect way to end a memorable day.

This scenic and history-filled journey offers the perfect mix of natural beauty, Great Lakes history, unique attractions, and relaxing travel with friends. Join us on the hosted trip on a deluxe motorcoach tour of some fantastic sights.
